St. Philip Benizi Mission Statement

St. Philip Benizi Catholic Church being part of the universal church shares in its mission: to proclaim Jesus Christ who came to the world to fulfill His father's will; by proclaiming the kingdom of God, building up the parish community as a witness to God's love and care for the world, helping one another to become what God has called us to be. We are therefore encouraged to work toward God's purpose of "wanting all men to be saved and come to the knowledge of the truth." (1 Tim 2:4).

“HE DESCENDED INTO HELL ON THE THIRD DAY HE ROSE AGAIN”

Paragraph 2. On the Third Day He Rose from the Dead

II. THE RESURRECTION- A WORK OF THE HOLY TRINITY

Christ's Resurrection is an object of faith in that it is a transcendent intervention of God himself in creation and history. In it the three divine persons act together as one, and manifest their own proper characteristics. the Father's power "raised up" Christ his Son and by doing so perfectly introduced his Son's humanity, including his body, into the Trinity. Jesus is conclusively revealed as "Son of God in power according to the Spirit of holiness by his Resurrection from the dead". St. Paul insists on the manifestation of God's power through the working of the Spirit who gave life to Jesus' dead humanity and called it to the glorious state of Lordship. CCC648

As for the Son, he effects his own Resurrection by virtue of his divine power. Jesus announces that the Son of man will have to suffer much, die, and then rise. Elsewhere he affirms explicitly: "I lay down my life, that I may take it again. . . I have power to lay it down, and I have power to take it again." "We believe that Jesus died and rose again." CCC649

The Fathers contemplate the Resurrection from the perspective of the divine person of Christ who remained united to his soul and body, even when these were separated from each other by death: "By the unity of the divine nature, which remains present in each of the two components of man, these are reunited. For as death is produced by the separation of the human components, so Resurrection is achieved by the union of the two." CCC650

Steubenville Article By: William Person

This year was my third year going to a Steubenville conference, so I had a good idea of what to expect at the conference. Like the two times before, the opening night started with music played by the band along with a talk from one of the speakers and a small adoration. This first night sets the mood for the whole weekend, and from my experience it is the best night. The reason being, after adoration as a youth group, we all go to confession. This changes your mindset for the weekend and gets you ready for what is ahead.

Although the conference was great, the most impactful thing from this weekend was the sense of community I felt at the conference. I have been going to Saint Phillip Benizi since the third grade, and the people in the youth group have been the only catholic friends I have. So it was quite refreshing to be around other Catholics at the conferences. Because of this, I was able to make new friends and feel more confident talking about my faith to some of my nonreligious friends. This sense of community has helped me to not feel alone in my faith and encouraged me to grow within it.

I am grateful for the opportunity this year to go to Steubenville, and fully experience the Catholic faith. I look forward to going next year and connecting more with members of our youth group here in Saint Phillip, as well as members from other youth groups. This weekend has shaped me in my faith and I'm glad to be able to share my experiences with you, thank you.

A Note From the Pastoral Council

Throughout the week, the Pastoral Council has been partaking in a retreat in order to discern God's will for the parish, namely through the formation of a mission statement for the Pastoral Council. Please keep the Pastoral Council in your prayers as they continue in their work to serve the parish.

Adoration

Currently, three people have been faithfully serving the adoration hour of 9-10pm on Thursdays, but they are no longer able to keep up this commitment. If you would like to their place for this weekly hour commitment, please contact Janet Tankersly. 503-545-2229
