St. Philip Benizi Mission Statement

St. Philip Benizi Catholic Church being part of the universal church shares in its mission: to proclaim Jesus Christ who came to the world to fulfill His father's will; by proclaiming the kingdom of God, building up the parish community as a witness to God's love and care for the world, helping one another to become what God has called us to be. We are therefore encouraged to work toward God's purpose of "wanting all men to be saved and come to the knowledge of the truth." (1 Tim 2:4).

“HE DESCENDED INTO HELL ON THE THIRD DAY HE ROSE AGAIN”

Paragraph 2. On the Third Day He Rose from the Dead

I. THE HISTORICAL AND TRANSCENDENT EVENT

The condition of Christ’s risen humanity

By means of touch and the sharing of a meal, the risen Jesus establishes direct contact with his disciples. He invites them in this way to recognize that he is not a ghost and above all to verify that the risen body in which he appears to them is the same body that had been tortured and crucified, for it still bears the traces of his Passion. Yet at the same time this authentic, real body possesses the new properties of a glorious body: not limited by space and time but able to be present how and when he wills; for Christ's humanity can no longer be confined to earth, and belongs henceforth only to the Father's divine realm. For this reason too the risen Jesus enjoys the sovereign freedom of appearing as he wishes: in the guise of a gardener or in other forms familiar to his disciples, precisely to awaken their faith. CCC645

Christ's Resurrection was not a return to earthly life, as was the case with the raisings from the dead that he had performed before Easter: Jairus' daughter, the young man of Naim, Lazarus. These actions were miraculous events, but the persons miraculously raised returned by Jesus' power to ordinary earthly life. At some particular moment they would die again. Christ's Resurrection is essentially different. In his risen body he passes from the state of death to another life beyond time and space. At Jesus' Resurrection his body is filled with the power of the Holy Spirit: he shares the divine life in his glorious state, so that St. Paul can say that Christ is "the man of heaven". CCC646

Steubenville Article By: Romeo Daly

I am one of the lucky youth members that went to Steubenville. Going into Steubenville I was a little nervous since it was my first year going, but it turned out to be fun and educational. I learned so much about the Catholic religion. During Steubenville, we had lectures every day, mass, adoration, as well as the opportunity to have confession. I learned that I would have to pray every day for 5 minutes to build my relationship with God and I also learned that to hear God you have to read his words. As the speaker said, “ If you are looking for God's speaking, read His words”. This quote stuck with me because it helped me get closer and to understand God. Which now I have started to take a little bit of time out of my day to pray so that I can get closer to God.

I also learned a major part of our day to day lives, specifically bonding over religion. It felt nice to freely talk about your religion and our various daily questions helped with it. Being able to talk and have a discussion over your religion really helped me be more comfortable with mine. Seeing so many Catholics my age that were joyful and loving God felt nice. All of this made the atmosphere of Steubenville joyful, open and caring and because of this atmosphere I was able to enjoy Steubenville more and was able to open myself up to learning.

Overall, the Steubenville conference was very exhausting but, I highly recommend it if you are confused or want to know your religion better. I know this because the Steubenville conference is an open community with a huge learning experience to learn about your religion, how to get closer to God and how to have fun while doing it.
