Divine Mercy Novena

Jesus asked that the Feast of Divine Mercy be preceded by a Novena to the Divine Mercy which would begin on Good Friday. He gave St. Faustina an intention to pray for on each day of the Novena. The Chaplet of Divine Mercy may also be offered each day for the day's intention, but is not strictly necessary to the Novena.

Day 1

"Today bring to Me all mankind, especially all sinners..."

Day 5

"Today bring to Me the Souls of those who have separated themselves from My Church..."

Day 2

"Today bring to Me the Souls of Priests and Religious..."

Day 6

"Today bring to Me the Meek and Humble Souls and the Souls of Little Children..."

Day 3

"Today bring to Me all Devout and Faithful Souls..."

Day 7

"Today bring to Me the Souls who especially venerate and glorify My Mercy..."

Day 4

"Today bring to Me the Souls of those who do not believe in Me and those who do not yet know Me..."

Day 8

"Today bring to Me the Souls who are detained in Purgatory..."

Day 9

"Today bring to Me the Souls of those who have become lukewarm..."

Jesus, I Trust in You!

SAINT OF THE WEEK

St. John Baptist de La Salle
April 30, 1651- April 7, 1719

St. John Baptist de LaSalle was born into a wealthy family in Reims, France. La Salle was well educated, which was a luxury just for the privileged at the time. By the age of 11, John was committed to becoming a priest. While in seminary, both of his parents died within a year of each other, so John briefly left his studies to care for his younger siblings. Despite the responsibilities to his family, John was ordained at the age of 26. Within 2 years, he also received his doctorate in theology.

John is known for his innovative work in Catholic education. Although he did not seek to reform, or even be involved in education, it is something that continually came up in his life. First in overseeing the education of his siblings, and later in running a school for poor, at risk boys. John founded a new order, dedicated to education called the Brothers of Christian Schools, many of whom still over see La Sallian schools throughout the world today. John fought to reform education that would fit all, not just the rich.

Let us remember, that we are in the holy presence of God.

St. John Baptist de LaSalle, pray for us!

Live Jesus in our hearts, forever.

RETREAT

FIND HELP IN OVERCOMING ADDICTIONS & UNHEALTHY ATTACHMENTS ON THIS HEALING RETREAT!

FRIDAY, SATURDAY & SUNDAY

May 17th-19th

5:00 p.m. Friday – 11:30 a.m. Sunday

Our Lady of Peace Retreat House
3600 SW 170th Avenue | Beaverton, OR 97003

Our Lady of Peace Retreat House, Beaverton, Oregon will be hosting a Catholic In Recovery (CIR) Retreat May 17-19, 2024. This three-day retreat will offer hope and healing for individuals in recovery from a variety of addictions, compulsions, and unhealthy attachments, those who are seeking to find freedom from the grip of addiction, and family members impacted by their loved one's addiction. Catholic In Recovery is a community of men and women who overlap 12-step recovery with the sacramental life of the Catholic Church.

When in the grips of addiction, it can be difficult to seek God's help. But the power of God is more than a concept—it's a real, personal force of love and grace that can free us from the shackles of darkness and give us new life! Participants will be encouraged to encounter and grow in the Lord through various talks, reflections, prayer, meetings, and opportunities for fellowship grounded in a Catholic sacramental approach to the Twelve Steps of addiction recovery. The Sacraments of Reconciliation and the Eucharist will be available during the weekend.

Accommodations and meals will be provided. The cost of the retreat is $325/person. $50 discount if you register by March 31, 2024. Final day to register is May 1, 2024.
